

Media Watch Jan. 3, 2010

Radek Sikorski's Pointless Patriots.

<http://easterneuropewatch.blogspot.com/2009/12/radek-sikorskis-pointless-patriots.html>

Poland troops to withdraw from Afghanistan in two years: FM

http://news.xinhuanet.com/english/2010-01/01/content_12737375.htm

Why Prime Minister Putin may be throwing a wrench in US-Russia arms talks

<http://www.csmonitor.com/World/Europe/2009/1230/Why-Prime-Minister-Putin-may-be-throwing-a-wrench-in-US-Russia-arms-talks>

[Link must end with -talks on the same line as http]

Polish general [Jaruzelski] battles on to protect his place in history

<http://www.ft.com/cms/s/0/42e59a7e-f5ac-11de-90ab-00144feab49a.html>

Auschwitz theft linked to Swedish neo-Nazis

<http://www.dw-world.de/dw/article/0,,5070495,00.html>

Cracks widening in German coalition government

<http://www.dw-world.de/dw/article/0,,5078276,00.html>

[One point of contention is the Federation of German Expellees]

Extraditions to Poland: Wanted, for chicken rustling

http://www.economist.com/world/britain/displaystory.cfm?story_id=15179470

When Will Poland Adopt the Euro?

http://www.warsawvoice.pl/view/21521/!

John Swiatek: Genuine American Hero

http://www.redbluffdailynews.com/ci_14093267

Chopin Bicentennial Celebrations Begin

<http://artsbeat.blogs.nytimes.com/2010/01/01/chopin-bicentennial-celebrations-begin>

Zakopane, Poland: skiing with divine guidance

<http://www.telegraph.co.uk/travel/snowandski/6911471/Zakopane-Poland-skiing-with-divine-guidance.html>

[Link must end with .html]