

Media Watch Feb. 7, 2010

Poland, with world's 18th economy, wants in G-20

http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2010/02/03/AR20100203_01520.html

Sweden, Poland urge sharp cuts in tactical nukes

http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2010/02/01/AR20100201_02877.html

Better say nothing: The minefield of writing about Poland

http://www.economist.com/daily/columns/europeview/displaystory.cfm?story_id=15449702&fsrc=nw1

Russia's Putin invites Tusk to Katyn massacre event

<http://news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/europe/8497577.stm>

Kaczynski Wants to Attend Moscow WWII Memorial

<http://www.warsawvoice.pl/newsX.php/11520>

Jaruzelski, age 86, again mounts a defense

<http://www.globalpost.com/dispatch/poland/100205/jaruzelski-defense>

Russia names NATO expansion as national threat

http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2010/02/05/AR20100205_02384.html

A Collision of Rhetoric: U.S. Interests in Central Europe

http://www.cepa.org/ced/view.aspx?record_id=218

Barack Obama: stumbling towards isolationism

One of the ironies of Barack Obama's presidency is that he is increasingly distant from the world he promised to embrace

<http://www.telegraph.co.uk/comment/7174195/Barack-Obama-stumbling-towards-isolationism.html>

[Link ends with .html on the same line as http]

Q&A: The Lisbon Treaty

<http://news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/europe/6901353.stm>

Poland issues EU arrest warrant for Swede over Auschwitz theft

<http://www.dw-world.de/dw/article/0,,5204825,00.html>

Eurozone economy holds up

<http://www.ft.com/cms/s/0/11b2c268-12be-11df-9f5f-00144feab49a.html>

Ukraine's shift east leaves Poles, Czechs alone in fear of Russia

The outcome of Sunday's Ukrainian run-off vote will likely improve ties between Moscow and Kiev, leaving Poland and the Czech Republic isolated in their fear of Russia. Germany holds the key to easing those concerns.

<http://www.dw-world.de/dw/article/0,,5174041,00.html>

Ukraine's election highlights its east-west divide

http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2010/02/05/AR20100205_01730.html

Ukraine - the Neighbor and the Neighborhood

Why does Ukraine's presidential election matter for the United States and Central Europe?

http://www.cepa.org/ced/view.aspx?record_id=216

Will Ukraine turn towards Europe?

<http://www.guardian.co.uk/commentisfree/2010/feb/04/ukraine-presidential-elections-poland>

Yushchenko rattles Ukraine as election nears

The outgoing president names Stepan Bandera, a controversial WWII figure, a 'Hero of Ukraine,' splitting the nation once more and putting the runoff candidates in an awkward spot before Sunday's vote.

<http://www.latimes.com/news/nation-and-world/la-fg-ukraine-vote7-2010feb07,0,7558634.story>

Never forgotten: Chopin - Prince of the Romantics. By Adam Zamoyski.

http://www.economist.com/books/displaystory.cfm?story_id=15450490